DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-9 and 17, drawn to a driving device classified in class 227, subclass 131
 - II. Claims 10-16 and 18-20, drawn to a method of operating an electric driving device, classified in class 173, subclass 1.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:
3. Inventions II and I are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus such as an apparatus that does not require the combination driving force of the solenoid and spring to drive the attachment member. Alternatively, the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus such as an apparatus that does not require the plunger to directly contact that attachment member and instead could contact and transfer the driving force to an anvil member. Conversely, the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process such as a process that requires a single driving element to drive the plunger.

4. Additionally, upon election of a distinct invention as detailed above, this application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

- a. Species I as shown in figures 1-5.
- b. Species II as shown in figure 6.
- c. Species III as shown in figures 7 and 8.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
